

I urge the FCC to uphold the current "Do Not Call" provisions within the law, and not yield to the pressure of businesses. Please maintain the the one area of commerce in which consumers function on a level-playing field; thanks to the "Do Not Call" list and Protection Act.